

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

The Estimate of Clothcraft Always Higher Than The Price

ASK your friend how much he thinks you paid for your suit. If it's a Clothcraft and he doesn't happen to know it, he's sure to guess at least a third more than the actual price. It's not surprising either. In the first place, it's hard for him to realize that a suit can fit you so well without being measured for it.

Then when he notices the cloth, the neat tailoring and the stylish se and drape of the clothes, he is surprised to learn that Clothcraft Clothes cost only $10 to $25. Especially is he surprised to learn that Clothcraft Clothes are all wool, covered by a guarantee that also insures lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service.

On the strength of this guarantee alone, many men have first been led to buy and wear Clothcraft Clothes. It's a safe example for you to follow.

Scientific Tailoring Makes it possible to sell The Clothcraft Blue Serge Special No. 5130, at $15.

Be good to your feet this time

Anderson's children, who have had whooping cough, are some better. — The Masonic order at this place has placed a large bell on their hall. — There is a certain young locomotive fireman, of Lebanon Junction, who makes weekly visits to our town, but strange to say, it is always on Sunday, guess who? — Mrs. R. Combs, of Morehead, Ky., has closed with ten additions to the church. — J. W. Baker, of Mt. Vernon, has put in a large stock of goods in the Masonic brick. We gladly welcome Mr. Baker's return to our town, for we full well know that a man who has once lived in Livingston cannot be satisfied elsewhere. — Thos. Elliott

D. M. CRESS, JR.

To the voters of Rockcastle county:

I have decided to make the race for Sheriff subject to the Democratic party primary to be held in Aug. I was born and raised in Rockcastle and have always been firm and doing all I could for the advancement of my party and the great common people. Having been deprived of a great privilege which most of you enjoyed not knowing anything of a father to advise me in all things that would be great and good in my behalf forced me to be a self-made man and commence at the age of ten to make my support. I can say that I have been campaigning for the last fifteen years for this election by kind talks and fair treatment to all and for that reason I feel that victory is sure and I now feel ready to step before the people of my dear old mother county and plead to them for help regardless of political feelings. I am qualified and equipped to fill the office and if the people will honor me with that office I will pledge myself to give you a sober and clean term in office and give the people due service, rendering justice to all. I wish to state further that if elected that big hearted gentleman and loyal democrat Jim Chaney will be my deputy.

who has been confined to his room with measles, is some better. — W. A. Todd, of Mt. Vernon, was in our town Sunday. — W. H. Cortongim has returned from a trip to Cincinnati and Louisville. — The Livingston lumber company are building a new dam across Rockcastle river below their booms. — Mrs. Emma Jones, who has been very sick for some time is some better. — Dr. R. G. Webb has been on the sick list for a few days, but is some better at this writing. — We had the pleasure of meeting our old friend, E. Bullock, a few days ago. Elisha looks on the bright side of life and certainly is a jolly fellow. — Wonder what has become of the weather man and his spring weather. — A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Carons, of Jellico, Tenn., died Saturday and was taken through here Sunday to Mareburg for burial at the family burying ground at Freedom. — G. W. Nicoley was in Mt. Vernon, Sunday. — Mrs. Ben Hellard, of Hazel Patch, visited Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hellard, Sunday. — We understand that the many friends of James Maret are pleading with him to make the race for County Court Clerk. We believe this would be a wise choice for the democrats and we can't see why he should refuse to enter the race. While we are a friend to and like the present incumbent, yet he is on the wrong side of the fence. Three cheers for James Maret. — Sam Stallsworth, who has a position as foreman of construction work in Cullman, Ala., left for that place Saturday. — William Deboard, of near Plato, Pulaski county, was here Sunday to meet his daughter, who has been attending school at Berea, Ky. — J. H. Dickerson has received a car load of ice so you see we are ready for warm weather when winter breaks. — John Fields and a party of fishers from Stanford returned home Monday with about 75 pounds of fish. — Miss Anne M. Walton the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walton will graduate in the Union College, at Barboursville, May 29, 1913. — Mr. A. Pennington, our marshal, is very sick at this writing and Mr. F. S. Hellard has been acting as marshal. — Miss Bessie Carson, of Jellico, is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Sue Mullins. — W. M. Yaden, of Brodhead, was in our town Tuesday. — W. G. Nicoley has purchased the 8 gable hotel and restaurant of S. E. Pennington, price paid $5000.00. — T. C. Welch was in Corbin Tuesday on business. — J. T. Omary is beautifying his dwelling on Main St., by giving it a new coat of paint. — J. E. Woodhill, of London, and C. L. McDowell, of East Bernstadt were in our city Tuesday. — W. G. Rivers and J. M. Foure were in London Tuesday. — Mr. and Mrs. John Mullins will visit Level Green Friday and remain there for a few days. — After enjoying the blessedness of single life for several years, we think that at last we have met our fate and it seems as though we can hear cupid singing love songs. We will now explain what gave rise to the above. Some few days ago we met one of Mother Eve's fair daughters and she informed us that she had had a vision and in that vision she dreamed that she and I were married. Now Mr. Ed, we are greatly bothered over the interpretation of that dream and as there are no more Josephs or Daniels to unriddle dreams we are left in the dark. There are such things as dream books but we are left at loss as where to find one. But men have always loved the fair sex all the way down from the time that Adam and Eve went a way on their honeymoon trip in the garden of Eden.

LOUISVILLE "boosters" are to visit Eastern Kentucky this latter part of the present month with a view to encouraging closer relations between that promising section and the metropolis of the State.

The journey should result in mutual benefit. Eastern Kentucky is no longer an unknown country. It is waking up to its possibilities and is becoming a region of great industrial activity. New towns are springing up in the wilderness and old towns are taking on new life. Development for many years was slow, but the turning point has been reached and henceforth there will be no going backward.

Louisville is interested in the progress of Eastern Kentucky and there is no good reason why Eastern Kentucky should feel any prejudice against Louisville. That there is some prejudice undoubtedly is true. Probably there is no more of it than exists in other rural sections, but whether it be great or small, there is nothing better calculated to remove it than by sending out a delegation of representative business men to visit the citizens of the mountain country in their home towns and to assure them that Louisville wishes them well and regard their acquaintance as worth cultivating.—Courier Journal.

In May 1911 Louisville sent a splendidly equipped booster train up this way and made a fine impression and many friends. The voices of their gifted orators echoed over these mountains and valleys. Everybody was enthused, pleased and happy and when this train pulled out for home the farewell word was "when the mountaineers want anything just call on Louisville and she will be there with the goods. Nothing is too good for the mountains." Two years passed then the mountains requested Louisville and her boosters to lend her moral support and small financial assistance toward a postage fund in pushing a proposition asking the government to build or assist in building a highway, to be called Boone Way, through the mountains from Cumberland Gap to Crab Orchard a distance of 95 miles. When this request was made of Louisville, her business men and boosters, what did they do? Well, their newspapers bitterly opposed the idea, on "principle" as they expressed it, as though they had a "corner" on "principles", a situation no one had ever been aware of as far as South Eastern Kentucky is concerned. The boosters and business men, with one or two notable exceptions, treated the 500 letters and other communications with utter indifference, not even acknowledging receipt of our Commercial Club's letters on this important subject. The Louisville Commercial Club, which claims to be a warm member and hot stuff, in its waking moments and lukewarmness did manage to muster up energy enough to advise our club, after various requests and inquiries that they had received some several of our letters and there the incident closed and we suppose the club members went off into slumberland to snooze away until they are awakened to get aboard the next booster train for Eastern Kentucky.

"Louisville is interested in the progress of Eastern Kentucky," Well she doesn't show it by her works. Louisville's 250,000 population contributed $1 toward pushing the Boone Way proposition.

"PREJUDICE?" We people of the "sticks" have sufficient intelligence to distinguish between right and wrong treatment and we only demand fairness but are firm in that proposition and don't you forget it. Louisville will stand gentle, unhitched and allow her back scratched for any length of time but when she is asked to do the same for others "she doesn't come up to the scratch."

C. R. LUKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF LAUREL AND ROCKCASTLE COUNTIES
In offering myself as a candidate for representative of Laurel and Rockcastle counties, I wish to state that since early childhood I have had a morbid desire to qualify myself for an office which, when properly filled, would be a great blessing to the laboring class of people. I have tried to so live that when I had thoroughly qualified myself, there would be a strong demand from the laboring class of people for me to become their servant.

I have had a hard struggle in obtaining an education as my father is a poor man and has never been able to help me very much financially. Consequently, I had to resort to hard labor in order to get the money which I spent in school, and I can truthfully say that there was never a cent spent for my education other than what I earned by hard labor such as rolling wheel barrows and driving steel. However, I feel that this has only better qualified me for the office for which I am now asking the support of the people.

I have had practically two years High school and have had five terms experience in the school room in Laurel county and four terms in Screven county Georgia. I read several papers and try to keep in touch with the times and believe that I know what the people need in the way of legislation. However, I do not believe that we need many new laws, but I believe that we need many of our laws amended, some repealed and the rest enforced.

I haven't any thing to say against any of my opponents because I believe they are all well known and if you think they can best represent your interests, I believe you should vote for them. I only want fair consideration in the primary and should the majority decide in favor of one of my opponents, I promise them my warmest support in the final. I hope that I shall be able to see you before the primary and have a personal talk with you, or else, that I shall be able to present to you my cause for the stump. I do not believe that I will be able to see you all personally as I am teaching in the East Bernstadt Graded School and will not get out until the middle of June but I shall endeavor to see as many of you as possible.

Yours for the uplifting of the laboring class of people.
C. R. LUKER.

Miss Minnie Duulap accompanied her. Miss Willie Francis, of Mt. Vernon, and Miss Jennie Stone, of Monticello, were with Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Bordes the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, of Shelbyville, were with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Carter, from Saturday until Tuesday. Miss Mattie Owens, the efficient assistant postmaster, left Tuesday afternoon for a two week's visit to her sister, Mrs. G. F. Sutton in Lexington. She will probably visit friends in Jackson before returning. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Saylor, of Rockcastle, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shivel, from Saturday until Monday. Dr. W. F. Miss Clyde Watson and Mildred Robins were with Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Durham in Mt. Vernon, Tuesday and Wednesday. N. W. Newcomb, of Rowland, was found dead in a creek near his home last Friday. He was engineer at the pumping plant at Rowland, and is survived by a wife and two small children. He was buried at the Christian Church cemetery, after funeral by the Rev. T. C. Duke, after which the Macabees held their ceremonies over the body of their deceased brother. Mr. J. R. Cass was in Stanford Wednesday with his daughter, Mrs. Lester B. Hilton. W. H. Anderson, B. R. Winnett, O. R. Cass, Frank Ward, Everett Watson and Walter Robins attended the exercises given by Mt. Vernon Graded School Tuesday evening. J. W. "Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence

Gives the Farmer a Big Boost in making His Farm Prosperous

Did you ever notice that a prosperous farm is invariably well fenced, and is usually divided into small fields by a fence "horse-high, hog-tight and bull-strong"? Why is it?

Because the prosperous farmer realizes that good fences are as necessary to successful farming as fertile seeds, efficient labor and proper machinery. But the wise farmer investigates before he invests. Others just buy and are often "sold."

"Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence is made with but one end in view—to give best service for the longest time at least cost. Investigating it costs nothing. Investing it pays.

Made in Different Styles for FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN, CHICKEN, POULTRY and RABBIT YARD and GARDEN

Every Rod Guaranteed

Ask your dealer for "Pittsburgh Perfect" and insist on his furnishing it. Do not allow him to persuade you that some other fence is just as good. If he doesn't sell it, write us direct.

The Operetta, Sylvia, at the Graded School building Tuesday evening, was witnessed by a large and appreciative audience. Miss Abernathy the efficient music teacher of the Langdon Memorial school had the play in charge and the successful finish demonstrated her ability as a teacher and trainer. The music was an important feature. In the choruses there were about 40 voices. Miss Abernathy, Mrs. Anna Miller, Misses Marguerite Lovell, Jennie Morrow Miller, Mary Mae Lathum Minerva Pensil and Tabitha Hiatt, and Messrs. V. J. Tate, John and Jesse Fish and Louis Miller were the principals. Miss Pan Sparks was at the piano.

The standard was such as is seldom seen by local talent in any of our smaller towns. The stage decorations represented a hay field, and the entire troupe, both in song and drama appeared to the best advantage at the footlight on this most enjoyable evening.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our friends, relatives and neighbors, who by their sympathy expressed their grief on account of the unfortunate death of our beloved husband and father Nathan Newcomb. We also thank Bro. McClary, especially do we thank the Maccabees and Rev. Duke for the manner in which they conducted the funeral.

The bereaved wife and sons.

The bank examiner was here Tuesday and made examinations of our two splendid banks, which he found in good condition and for the managements of which he spoke many kind words of commendation.

The Banking Department is making a strong effort to put all the banks on a high basis and one thing in particular that the cashier always gets a nice little calling down for, is the permitted; and that is overdrafts. The Banking department takes the position that those who have no money in bank have no right to check out the other fellows' money and use it. The question of overdrafts with Kentucky banks will soon be a thing of the past, and the fellow who expects to run by overdrafting had just as well get ready to do some other way. The Banking department is not going to tolerate it and the cashiers can not afford to take the chances by permitting overdrafts.

About forty of the stock holders of the Mt. Vernon Fair Association were present at the meeting Saturday. The spirit of enthusiasm which played such an important part in last years fair was in evidence and the hall was put in motion for a still greater fair for 1913. There will be another meeting on Saturday June 7th at which time, an effort will be made to have every one of the 175 stock holders present. The putting on of a fair is no one mans job but by the hearty cooperation and support of the long list of stock holders such as the Mt. Vernon Fair Association has, victory and success is as certain as that the day follows the night. The premium list for this year will soon be ready which will be better than last year, high class special attractions have been secured for the entertainment of the fair goers and in a word we might add, that last years fair was only a starter compared with what it will be Aug. 6, 7 & 8, 1913.

Begin to figure on your exhibit for you will want it when you see the premiums. Every thing produced by the farmer will be included and special inducements will be offered to the horsemen and stock raisers and breeders. Keep the dates in mind and begin to make your preparations for the Mt. Vernon Fair Aug. 6-8 1913.

NOTICE—There came to my place about April 25, 4 yearling heifers, red and roan; 2 red steers marked with swallow fork in left ear. I live about 4 miles North of Brodhead on Copper Creek. Owner can have same by paying all trouble and expense.

Somerset, Ky., May, 8th, 1913.

My Dear Albright,

Knowing your interest in the Boone Highway. I am below furnishing you a chapter in connection with it. If you have already been made cognizant of it then this will be useless, otherwise I think worth publishing.

In 1844 Hon. Ben Hardin was appointed secretary of State by Gov. Owsley. In speaking of this Hardin says "When Gov. Owsley was preparing his message in that year to be communicated to the General Assembly he pointed out to him—that the turnpike road be extended from Crab Orchard to Cumberland Gap—and that the state dividends on the turnpike road from Louisville to Crab Orchard be appropriated to extend the pike to Cumberland Gap."

Mr. Hardin was a whig and in favor of internal improvements state and national; and besides being a far sighted man must have held the view that the extension would be a valuable connecting link between Louisville and the South, and as the mountains, without reaping any benefit, had been taxed to build a number of pikes in more favored parts of the state that something should be done for it. There is nothing to show that any sentimentality as to Boone played any part in the making of the suggestion that it is by no means an improbability. This might be used with effect in inducing the legislature to give aid based on what in former times had been done for the blue grass regions.

Yours truly

THOMAS Z. MORROW

E. S. Albright,

Mount Vernon, Ky.

The State has never given justice to the inhabitants of its South Eastern domains. It should have had constructed many years ago a turnpike over the old "Wilderness Road". As stated in Judge Morriss admirable letter, above, the mountains were taxed to assist in the building of pikes in more favored parts of the state which were enjoyed and profited by the citizens of the blue grass whose territory was crisscrossed with these good roads, mainly built by the state, yet at this late day when our people of the hills make an effort and appeal for justice what does the press of Louisville do but deride our movement and treat the whole thing as child's play; even objecting to our asking the National government for aid in the proposed work of constructing an improved highway over the route which the state miserably failed to do, as it was in duty bound. The newspapers, whose city the mountaineers have patronized away beyond its deserts go further and advise us to "dig roads if you want them, you lapsed sons of guns; we object to the government donating anything toward building highways in the Mountains. We object on "principle", we don't see that you sang diggers deserve anything anyway. Go along make your roads and spend your money in Louisville the city that has no time or money to waste upon you, not even fifty cents towards postage fund in your Boone Way Movement" yet this same city boasts of being the "gateway" to the South". It is justified in the "gateway" claim part of it all right when it comes to state appropriations for improvements of any kind within Jefferson county, notable the state fair but when the mountains would ask for aid to good roads up goes a howl from its selfish and grasping newspapers. The majority of the professional and business men of that city have given the movement no better treatment than its papers and this part of the moral vineyard has transferred a larger portion of its trade to more appreciative cities that display a friendly interest in our affairs.

The talk of Louisville papers having "principles" is too laughable. Judge Morrow's suggestion that the legislature should give aid is a correct one. The more favored portions of the state "got theirs" away back from the 40's on up to the 60's. The question is will the mountains ever get anything except injustice, with a big I.

HOME COMING celebrations are pleasurable and commendable affairs. They keep alive that spirit of hospitality which has so long been considered characteristic of Kentucky, but which is somewhat prone to languish as the village advances to a town and the town grows into a city.— Courier Journal.

It doesn't require a search warrant to discover where Louisville stands on the "spirit of hospitality". Down there they spell it, when they do happen to use the word, with a small "h" requiring a microscope to see it.

How The Body Kills Germs.

Germs that get into the body are killed in two ways—by the white corpuscles of the blood, and by a germ-killing substance that is in the blood. Just what this substance is, we do not know. The blood of a healthy person always has some germ-killing substance in it to ward off the attack of disease. The fountain head of life is the stomach. A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished. To put the body in healthy condition, to feed the system on rich, red blood and throw out the poisons from the body, nothing in the past forty years has excelled Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a pure glyceric extract (without alcohol), of bloodroot, golden seal and Oregon grape root, stone root, mandrake and queen's root with black cherry bark.

J. H. MARTIN, ESQ.

"My husband was a sufferer from stomach trouble and impure blood," writes Mrs. JAMES H. MARTIN, of Frankfort, Ky. "He had a sore on his face that would form a scab which would dry and drop off in about a month, then another would immediately form. It continued this way for a long time. I was so distressed that any one would suggest to me no relief. He then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stayed cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

Robert was 17 years of age and a bright and loving boy, liked by all who knew him. He had been a sufferer of tuberculosis for more than a year. About three months ago he went to New York in hopes that he might get better but seemed to gradually grow worse and returned to his home at Hiatt, and on May 7, he passed to the great beyond. Robert was only a flower planted on this earth by the gentle hand of God to be plucked by the angels and carried to the heavenly home to await the coming of dear ones left behind.

When standing around the dying one, The tears rolled down each cheek; They saw the suffering that was there.

And o'er it did weep. His body lies in the cold grave His form is in the tomb. The struggling tolls for life are past.

And death has sealed her doom. Tho' loud the thunder it may roll, It can't disturb his rest. Nor can the piercing winds that blow, Disturb his gentle breast. Friends that are left to mourn his loss,

Be all prepared to die, When God will call you from earth You will meet him in the sky. After funeral services the remains were laid to rest in the Oak Hill cemetery.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Don't wait until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.
